

FIRE PROTECTION ENGINEER OPPORTUNITY IN COLUMBIA, MD with URS www.urscorp.com

Washington Division of URS is currently advertising for a Mechanical Engineer specializing in FIRE PROTECTION to be located in Columbia, MD area office.

Basic Qualifications:

Education: Bachelor of Science degree in an appropriate engineering discipline or the sciences from a four year accredited college or university.

Experience:

- MUST have passed the Fire Protection Engineering written exam administered by the National Council of Examiners of Engineering and Surveys (NCEES)
- 8+ years of professional experience.
- PE - Professional Engineering License REQUIRED
- CADD - AutoCAD Version 2006 or later
- Microstation - Version 8
- Federal Government experience
- Experience working with Unified Facilities Criteria - specifically UFC-03-600
- Proficient with LIFE SAFETY ANALYSIS
- Must be a US Citizen with the ability to obtain a Department of Defense Top Secret with full scope polygraph security clearance

Preferred Qualifications:

- Department of Defense security clearance – Top Secret with SCI and FULL SCOPE POLYGRAPH

If you currently hold your PE license, have several years of fire protection experience AND have passed the NCEES Fire Protection Engineering written exam – please send your resume to:

Valarie Lopez @ valarie.lopez@wgint.com

Please put “Fire Protection Engineer” in the subject line of your email.